RULES AND INFORMATION

COMPETITION ROUNDS

The competition will be judged by international artists with multiple rounds, including preliminaries, semi-finals, and finals.

Preliminary Rounds

This is the elimination rounds where the best half of the contestants are allowed to go through. Dancers will be randomly paired with multiple partners

- Music: Two songs of different tempos will be played.
- Duration: Each song will last approximately 1.5 to 2 minutes.
- Judging Criteria: Connection, musicality, timing, and basic technique.

Semi-Final Round

The top scoring dancers from the preliminary rounds will advance. Dancers will be paired randomly again and perform to different songs.

- Music: Two to three songs with varying styles (traditional, modern, sensual).
- Duration: Each song will last approximately 2 to 2.5 minutes.
- Judging Criteria: Partner connection, creativity, interpretation of the music, and technical execution.

Final Round

The highest scoring dancers from the semi-finals will compete. Dancers will be paired randomly for a final time and perform to two-three songs. On this round, the judges would also be able to pair with the dancers when necessary.

- Music: Two to Three songs showcasing a range of Bachata styles.
- Duration: Each song will last approximately 2.5 to 3 minutes.
- Judging Criteria: Overall performance, chemistry with the partner, improvisation skills, and audience appeal.
